FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City Attorney Takes Fugitive Program to the Airwaves

COLUMBUS, OH—Columbus City Attorney Richard C. Pfeiffer, Jr. announced that a broadcast version of his outstanding warrant program has begun airing on CTV Columbus Television.

“I would like to thank Mayor Coleman and his administration, especially Stephfanie Harper and the entire CTV crew, for allowing this joint collaboration to be possible,” said City Attorney Richard C. Pfeiffer, Jr.

The television program, called “Fugitive Files,” is an extension of the City Attorney’s “Fugitive of the Week” initiative that uses social media to communicate and obtain information on individuals with outstanding arrest warrants. “Fugitive Files” will air at the following times on Friday, June 29, 2012:

- 1:53 pm
- 3:00 pm
- 7:20 pm
- 9:22 pm
- 10:30 pm

Additional airtimes may be found on CTV’s daily schedule.

“We’re hoping to build upon the success we have experienced with social media to continue educating the public about outstanding warrants and alerting the community about the potential danger of individuals who ignore or disobey orders of the court,” said Assistant City Prosecutor Bill R. Hedrick.

Hedrick leads the fugitive apprehension program on City Attorney Pfeiffer’s behalf and is featured in “Fugitive Files.” The first installment of the program may be viewed directly online.

CTV is available on Channel 3 (Insight and Time Warner) or Channel 99 (WOW and AT&T U-Verse).
